Thank you for your prayerful consideration.

If you would like to learn more about the Catholic faith, please join the RCIA team each Sunday, at 9:00 a.m. in the Parish Center Conference Room. The topic for November 1 is:

a letter from the pastor

A popular question that the school kids ask me is “What will Heaven be like.” I guess all have an image of what heaven is like in our mind. The young probably imagine a place where they can play with toys or computers without limit. They might picture eating an endless supply of ice cream and their pet that just died would be there with them. One might even imagine spending time with their guardian angel. A middle age person might ponder on the opportunity to have all their questions about life answered. An old widow or widower might picture being with their spouse again.

Every one of us tends to project into our image of heaven the things that we believe will make us happy. Doesn't that make sense? After all Heaven should be a happy place.

I am not certain what heaven will be like. I don't think that we will be on a cloud strumming a harp. I pray that we all are there one day, just not too soon. I have never been, nor have I met someone who has been there either. However, I believe in Heaven! I think that heaven is not what we imagine it to be, but rather how God created it.

Since Heaven is really beyond all our understanding, we tend to think of things that make us happy here on Earth and understand that Heaven is even better. As we celebrate All Saints Day, on November 1st, we think of Heaven, the great leaders of the Church, family, and loved ones.

Saints are not perfect people who never committed a wrong, instead Saints are people who in life learned to love God, above everything else. It is a challenge to trust God and allow him to give sometimes more than we ever imagined. On All Saints we honor those who learned to put God first. Their journey was one with many twists and turns, setbacks and successes. Through the trial, they achieved the ultimate goal, holiness! Their lives should inspire us.

All Souls Day (November 2nd) is the day we pray for all Souls in Purgatory. This teaching of the Catholic Church demonstrates God's promise, hope, and mercy. Purgatory should remind us of God's constant love and mercy and His desire for us one day to be with Him. Thankfully for us purgatory is one of the last chances for God to make it possible for a person to enjoy the salvation won by Christ.

All Souls Day teaches us that we can always do things for those we love. On All Souls Day the Church invites us to pray for those in purgatory. We ask that God be merciful. Through prayer we remain connected to our loved ones. May God have Mercy on us and the whole world. May we be blessed to see God face to face.
